Fogg Boy Taken to Reform School To Begin Sentence Until 21 Years of Age

LAST WEEK COURT

Petit Jury Recessed Until Friday When Judge Nelson Will Close Work of Term

The winter term of District Court will come to an end Saturday night. The high light of this week was the report of the Grand Jury yesterday issuing warning on marble boards, and discussion handling meals.

James Fred Fogg pleaded guilty in district court Saturday to the charge of attack upon E. F. King, former Canyon school superintendent. Young Fogg was sentenced to four years in the reform school at Gatesville until he becomes 21 years of age. The case was tried in juvenile court since it was found after the arrest of young Fogg that he was of juvenile age and could not be tried on a felony charge.

Mr. King was the only witness heard in the case.

Sheriff R. N. Barnett and Deputy Clerk Lawrence Phillips left Saturday afternoon for Gatesville to deliver young Fogg at the school.

The case of State of Texas vs. Mike Allred was transferred to Potter county Thursday afternoon when change of venue was asked by the defendant.

The grand jury was in session yesterday and filed the following report with Judge E. C. Nelson, before adjourning for the session: "After due deliberation and consultation with the District Attorney (Continued on last page)

President Gives Stand For Help To Unfortunate

Roosevelt Starts Second Term Yesterday as the Champion of Poor; Garner Takes Oath

President Roosevelt took office yesterday under the new constitutional amendment which shortened his first term 42 days.

President Roosevelt spoke to the nation in his inaugural address, championing the cause of the underprivileged of the nation, and extending to them hope of continued friendly relations as he has shown in the past.

No specific recommendation was made by the President, but a number of messages will be sent to Congress during the coming session in which his wishes on government will be expressed.

Vice President John Garner took the oath of office before President Roosevelt. Rain poured down upon the Vice President as he took the oath of allegiance to the nation.

Underpass Work Is Progressing Rapidly With Excavation

All of the excavation for the new underpass was completed this week with the exception of the dirt directly under the railroad double track.

The ditch for the drainage is now being dug for the big sewer tile which will carry the water from the underpass. A dragline is being used for this excavation. The deepest part of the draining ditch will be 26 feet. Many Canyon citizens have watched this operation with interest as few have witnessed excavation for draining done by such a method.

The underpass job will take about six months to complete.

Mrs. Bob Barker left Saturday for Temple, taking her mother, Mrs. Sam Wiggins, for medical treatment.

Bufs Take Two Games From Yellow Jacks Team

T. W. C. Rams Will Meet Bufs Here Next Monday and Tuesday at the Burton Gymnasium

The Buffalo basketball team hit a winning stride Monday and Tuesday, defeating the fast Howard Payne team from Brownwood in both games.

The Bufs won the game Monday night 30-22. At the half the score stood 14-10 favoring the home team.

Tuesday night was a rough and tumble game, with three of the visiting stars being chased from the game by personal fouls early in the second half. The score stood 19-14 at the half, and ended 45-28, favoring the Bufs. The visitors played the Bufs a very close game throughout most of the first period, keeping the score tied up at frequent intervals. 21 personal fouls were called against the Bufs, but the visitors were able to convert on only 13 of them. 16 personal fouls were registered against the visitors, the Bufs making 15 of them good.

Rams Are Next

The Texas Wesleyan Rams of Fort Worth will be here next Monday and Tuesday nights. The Rams have been going strong in basketball this year and a hot battle will be fought between the Bufs and Rams on both nights.

Reduction Rate Made By Texas-New Mexico Util

Saving of $3,000 for People of Canyon Is Made Voluntarily By Power Company

J. B. Morrisette, manager of Texas-New Mexico Utilities Company here, announced that his company is putting into effect new electric rate schedules which will result in a savings of more than $3,000 per year to the electric customers in Canyon.

These new rate schedules will apply to residential service and also for commercial lighting and small power. A like reduction is being placed in effect in towns of similar size. Savings under these new schedules will be reflected in bills mailed by the company on February 1st.

Mr. Morrisette stated that this reduction was in line with the company's long established policy of making rate reductions wherever possible. It constitutes the fifth voluntary rate reduction made in the past three years.

At a recent meeting, the city commission considered and approved the new electric rates.

Widening of Hiway Started by WPA and Hiway Department

After nearly a year of delay, work was started Friday on widening highway No. 9 between Canyon and Amarillo. 150 men are working this week on the project. WPA is furnishing the men and the State Highway Department is furnishing the engineers and materials.

Widening the two bridges north of Canyon will be the most expensive part of the program.

The base of the highway was widened two years ago, under CWA when caliche was hauled to both sides of the present pavement.

It is planned to top the caliche and the present pavement with asphalt.

FARMERS DROPPED FROM WPA MAY APPLY RESETTLEMENT

The Rehabilitation Division of Resettlement Administration has announced that it will take care of farmers in the drought territory who have been dropped from WPA rolls.

R. I. Kimmel is chief of this division and announces that there is funds on hand to carry on this work.

Money Available For Listing If Blowing Certain

Small Amount Money Is Allotted County to Take Care of the Emergency Cases of Blowing

Randall county is to have the benefit of a small appropriation for emergency listing to prevent soil blowing this spring. This money is to come from a balance left in the fund appropriated last year. Randall county will receive about one-third to one-half as much as was used last year.

At a meeting of the County Agricultural Council Saturday of last week, it was decided to use the same committee set-up as was used last year. Farmers who have land that is in danger of blowing may secure a grant of twenty cents per acre to list or chisel the land to prevent blowing. The rules for the use of this money are very few and simple.

1. Any operator or owner of land that is in danger of damage by wind erosion is eligible for the grant.

2. Land must be listed or chiseled on contour. Contour lines must be run with a level.

3. Applications for grants must be signed by a community committeeman before work starts. No money will be paid until work is finished.

Community committeemen are supplied with blanks which may be signed up without the applicant making a trip to the County Office until work is finished.

It is suggested that any farmer having fields that are likely to blow have contour lines run, where (Continued on last page)

323 TB Chickens Found and Killed In Test Project

65 Flocks in County Are Tested, Showing 3.1% of the Birds to Be Affected By TB

A survey test to determine the extent of avian tuberculosis in Randall county was completed on January 15th. Sixty-five flocks out of a total of about 650 flocks in the county were tested by Dr. A. J. Lewis of the Texas Live Stock Sanitary Commission. This testing project was arranged in cooperation with the State Veterinarian and the United States Bureau of Animal Industry. The purpose of the project was to determine the extent of tuberculosis in chickens in this area.

A total of 10,323 birds were tested. These were contained in sixty-five flocks located in different sections of the county. Re-actors were found in forty-two of the sixty-five flocks tested. Only one diseased bird was found in each of nine of the forty-two infected flocks. A total of 324 re-actors were found and destroyed. This is 3.1% of the total number tested.

Is no sign that the cheap stocks will ever be worth more than they are today. But the sucker list is being worked overtime. The manipulator points to the big increased price of sound stocks as an argument to sell cheap stocks. Is it possible that the American people learned nothing from the crash of 1929? If you have money to invest in the stock market, buy sound stocks. They may not bring big returns, but you will generally be able to get your money back on short notice.

The railroads of Texas are putting up an active fight against the encroachment of the truck lines. The first of a series of advertisements was published in The News and other newspapers of Texas last week giving the people information regarding highway building in Texas, and who pays the bill for this construction. The public is certain to receive some enlightening information regarding highways, rates and other problems of transportation. The trucks have put out certain information regarding the amount of money which they pay to the state. The railroads now challenge the statements made by the trucks. The public has a right to know the facts. The public pays the transportation bills, whether it be to the railroads or to the trucks; therefore the public is entitled to know whether or not the highways are being abused by the trucks which they are using to take away the business of the largest taxpayer which the state has—the railroads.

The more the public knows about public questions the more intelligently may the people judge as to the proper solution of public questions.

The true Plainsman never forgets. Breathing the pure air of the Texas "dust bowl" through childhood and early manhood leads one never to forget the possibilities and the grandeur of his native state. Witness the forceful editorial of Olin E. Hinkle in the Lexington, Kentucky, Herald taking to task H. L. Mencken for his libelous attack upon the Great Plains. Mr. Hinkle extolls the pioneer spirit of the farmers of this section, and forcefully presents the accomplishments of the past. He did a good job of exposing the weakness of the Mencken arguments used in his famous article against this section of the United States.

If and when the Mattson kidnapper and murderer is caught and brought to justice, will there be a revival of the silly public prejudice that was witnessed during the Hauptmann trial? Will the Mattson family be forgotten in their sorrow? Will the silly, mushy sentiment again be displayed by trying to shield and protect the man who should speedily pay for the crime that he has committed? The public will be on trial in this case to the same extent that the criminal will be facing justice.

The nation proceeds to kill our presidents by overwork and overworry, and then cheerfully grant pensions during life to their widows. President Roosevelt has requested Congress to give him six more assistants in order to spare him some of the health-wrecking duties that he now has. The difficulty is that no president can well afford to relinquish many of the duties the nation imposes upon him for fear that a mess will be made of public affairs.

As Flint Riots Caused Bloodshed in Auto Strike

Still deadlocked, despite repeated efforts of the state and national government to end it, the paralyzing automobile strike became one of bloodshed when police and 500 sitdown strikers clashed in Flint, Mich. Photo at upper left shows the debris that littered streets after the smoke of gunfire and clouds of tear gas cleared away. Twenty-four were injured. The overturned auto is a police car upset by strikers. Photo at right shows a striker, defying tear gas and rifle fire, hurling rocks at police. The battle, followed by a call for the Michigan national guard, started when union sympathizers tried to take food to sitdown strikers holding down a General Motors plant.

Miss Robinson To Have Water Color Group Displayed

Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department of West Texas State, has just prepared an exhibit of 15 of her own water color paintings which will be used by the Michigan State College at East Lansing, Mich., as the opening exhibit in the new art gallery which has just been completed there. This is the third one-artist exhibit which Miss Robinson has given by request.

Included in the group which will be sent to East Lansing is "My Venetian Palace" which was hung throughout the entire summer in the art museum at the Dallas Centennial. Two other pictures, "The Old Cabin" and "Her Fifteenth Summer" have been exhibited at the University of Texas this fall. Students of the Palo Duro School of Art, which was conducted by Miss Robinson last summer, and visitors at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society gallery will also remember the water color "Autumn in the Palo Duro" and "The Old Water Mill" which have been sent for the Michigan showing.

IS YOUR WIFE A SMARTER STARTER THAN YOU ARE?

You can settle that most fairly on your own home grounds after you both have your chance at these latest simple rules, which automotive authorities approve today:

First be sure the garage doors hold open against any Winter wind! . . . your protection from fumes

Before touching the starter or ignition switch, step on clutch pedal and keep it down

Open hand-throttle about one-third

Now pull choke out full (unless your car has automatic choke)

With ignition switch still off (except startix-type) operate your starter, until your engine has made 2 or 3 revolutions

While starter is turning, switch on the ignition, being ready to release starter so that it has no chance of retarding the engine after explosions begin!

ALLEITH ELLISTON WEDS
ROBERT CURRY, FRIDAY

A large circle of friends in Canyon will be interested in learning of the marriage of Miss Alleith Elliston to Mr. Robert Curry of Crosbyton, in a simple but impressive ceremony at her home in Hereford, Friday evening, Dec. 15, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. H. M. Redford, pastor of the First Christian Church of Hereford officiated.

The bride was beautiful in a fitted, floor length dress of white silk tulle, and she carried a formal arm bouquet of white carnations.

Howdy, Folks.

You know, kids, seen' all of you havin' fun when you was exempt and then changin' schedules and such, almost makes me wanta start off the new semester with you, but I reckon me and Mariah'll stick to the farm.

That really tickled me pink to see you kids give them old Sandies a lickin' tother night. Jest stay with 'em, gang, and purty soon there won't be nobody that you can't whip.

Bulldog, you really scared them Chiefs with all the long shooting and so forth. Folks, did all of you see those Junior boys playing Happy? Wal, they're shore gonna take the Eagles places in a year or so. Even if they are little, they really have that old Eagle spirit.

I shore got me nervous when them little second-string Eaglettes went in against them Friona Squaws. You kids has really got pep and vim in you, and it most nigh tickled me to death to see you make two goals against those Squaws.

Miriah and me are thinking of being in the Amateur contest to-nite. So all you folks had better be there on time becuz when Mariah gets started singin' they ain't nobody that can beat her or stop her, but I know there's gonna be some other of the best Auteurs of the country gonna perform.

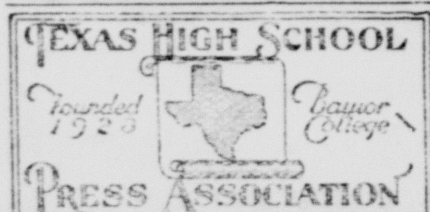

I 'magine there'll be lots o' kids going to Hereford Saturday nite; not only to see them Eagles beat the White Faces, but some of you gals, especially, will go to see yore sweetie. Wal, whether you go to see yore sweetie or the ball game, them authorities up there at schule asked me to tell you that they wanted everybody out 100% to back the basketballers, and to let the other towns know that we can hitch up and back our teams as good as they can.

Sweetie, you better watch out about going to Hereford with one feller when you know you got another one over there; remember Billy isn't as big as that drum major.

Wal, I'll be seen' you.

P. S. Did you know that Mr. Brown has become a Sergeant or somethin' or other becuz he got a package the other day addressed "Sergeant Gerald A. Brown." He shore must be gettin' important becuz it was from the War Department. He reckons that he'll soon be secretary of it.

WHAT DOES LOYALTY MEAN?

In order to be a good school citizen, you must be loyal not only to your work but to your friends. Loyalty is a good asset to personality and is expected of everyone. Support or athletics is part of your duty as a school citizen!

While athletics are not the primary purpose of public schools, they have their recognized place. The pupil who does not give his athletic teams full backing and support not only hurts the team but loses much pleasure and benefit to himself. And our basketball teams certainly deserve just as much praise and support as the football team ever did. Try it, those of you who have not, come out to the basketball games and thereby gain personal enjoyment and show your school spirit and loyalty.

TAKE CARE OF BOOKS

The new books and semi-new ones at the beginning of the year now look old and haggard because their covers are missing.

Now these books, most of them, are provided by the State and should be taken care of as you would take care of your favorite

Discuss Motion Pictures

Motion pictures was the theme of the Parent-Education Study Course at its regular meeting last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. John B. Pope, leader of the discussion, brought out the following points: Are motion pictures an opportunity or a menace? Suggested remedies for the situation. What can we, as an organization, do to help the situation?

The devotional, given by Mrs. J. R. Sharp, had "Talents" as its theme. "When God called Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egyptian bondage," said Mrs. Sharp. "He asked this question: 'What is that in thy hand?' We all hold talents in our hands; and however humble they may be, God can use them."

"Our inspirational devotionals are by no means the smallest part of our programs," comments Mrs. Ray Campbell, program chairman of the club.

The Study Club meets regularly on the second Thursday afternoon of each month. Mrs. Campbell urges that all parents spend this one hour each month in consideration and study of problems vital to the welfare of their children.

J. B. Pope Offers
Filing Course

One new subject is being offered this semester. Changes will be made only in half-year subjects; otherwise, students are requested to remain in their usual classes.

A half-unit course in office practice is being offered by Mr. John B. Pope this semester. It will have only a limited number of students this term, but will probably be a full course next year.

This course is designed to aid pupils in an understanding of office routine in small concerns, particularly in filing and in using simple office machines. The school offices will serve as laboratories for this course.

BOOK REVIEW

"Dri and I" by Irving Bacheller, is a tale of adventure and romance along the Northern border during the War of 1812. The book has an historical background portraying a colorful period of history. Hardships are shown but joy overcomes these.

Darins Alin, nicknamed "Dri," is a brawny, raw-boned woodsman of the North, who goes out to fight the soldiers of King George in the War of 1812, accompanying Ramon Bell, the son of his employer. The Bells leave their home in Vermont and work their way over rough trails to the St. Lawrence Valley. They settle in the North and the time passes until Ramon becomes a man and the second war with Great Britain is on. Dri and Ramon enlist and enter the service of Commodore Perry.

A charming romance runs thru the historical episode of the book; and Dri's quaint sayings and humorous philosophy enliven nearly every page.

If you don't know what you want to read, call for "Dri and I," an interesting book.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

Egotism, sensitiveness, pride—these three things are enemies to knowledge. They keep us from being teachable.

FIGHT FROM START TO END

Many students last Friday and Saturday fought bravely to pass their final exams. But even with these attempts, some fell by the wayside. While it may seem a burden for our students to have to remember everything they have had, remember that if we did not have tests to test our knowledge now, in later life we might fail on some more crucial test.

This semester we should not let our tests slip up on us. Start the new semester off by getting your lessons every day and by paying close attention in class. Everyone likes an A, so let's work for them. No A-student ever got an A without work; neither will you.

fiction book. Students do not seem to realize that covers of books represent a high personal standard of efficiency as well as help raise the school standard.

If you are loyal to your school in all other things, why not provide these poor shivering books with enough covers to shelter them from the cold rains and snows? This would be one of the best ways to show your loyalty to the school and also to show your respect for the future pupils and what they think as they receive their "new" books.

Dannie Stewart was chosen for first place in the style show given by the first year home-making class last Tuesday.

Shirley Ann Oliver, won second; Annie Ruth Schmitz, third; and Polly Cluck, fourth. Kathleen Wright was runner-up.

The dresses were judged by their appropriateness for school, and their appearance on the wearer as well as for workmanship. Dannie's dress was blue print trimmed in white rick-rack braid. Judges were Elizabeth Deal, Sybil Gidden, and Merle Baggerly.

"Test Questions And Silly Answers"

All my life, I've heard about English scholars, and how wonderful they must feel to be able to give civilized answers on test questions; but the recent mid-term exams seem to disprove this theory.

Of all the funny answers, these are rare: "Lady Macbeth got cold feet and had a nervous breakdown." "Shakespeare was born in the New England States in the Sixteenth Century."

Some bright student of the English 10 class said this on a test: "Longfellow lived in England." Now, do you still believe in English scholars?

Whew! Some of these world history answers were enough to kill anyone. For instance, "The Greeks contributed the Latin language to civilization," or "The chief contribution of the Babylonians to civilization was the Bible."

Some pupil in the Geography 7 class gave this remarkable answer. "The chief industrial centers of the United States are New York City, Amarillo, Tulsa, Happy, and Hereford."

Another shining example from World History, was "Shakespeare was a famous Italian who wrote Romeo and Juliette." My, what is this world coming to?

Since when are Sensory words, words which have been used for sensory in the past and will be used for sensory to come? Well, some public speaking pupil thought this!

One of Miss Annie Ruth Eastus' pupils said that "Joan of Arc was a city in France." Since when, sez I!

The other day Miss Black asked a pupil what the little music mark was between the sharp and the flat. Well, he couldn't answer that; so she asked him how his sister's face looked when it didn't have rouge on it, instead of replying "natural" as she wanted him to, he said "It looks better." Now don't these children have ducky ideas?

Mrs. L. M. Cousins, on a past test, asked this question, "What was the significance of the Monroe Doctrine?" One answer was "He was a good man and a fine doctor." Another youngster, asked about the result of the battle of Bunker Hill, answered: "It was a hard-fought battle but it didn't hurt Bunker much."

But even that doesn't compare with one of the answers Mr. Brown got on one of his papers. When he asked why 500 years elapsed between the time Ielf Ericson touched the coast of North America and when it was discovered by Columbus, one pupil answered, "The people of Europe were just waiting for the gold to grow before they discovered America."

Marie O'Donald, Lillian Chambers, R. E. Prichard, Zella Laughery, Helen Johnson, Clarence Zachry, Raymond Bible, Lavert Avent, Thomas Harris and Scott Downing attended the Eagles-Sandies game in Amarillo last week.

Miss Jewell Foster spent the week end in Amarillo at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed Enoch.

Farley's Circus
Sponsored By Band Parents

Cal Farley's Flying Dutchman circus will be presented next Tuesday night at 7:30 in the high school auditorium, under the auspices of the Band Parents Association.

Every act will be something different from the performance given by the company last year when they were here under the name of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Cal Farley is bringing thirty performers to the high school for two hours of fun and entertainment Tuesday night.

Mr. R. G. Stephenson, director of Canyon High School Band, has announced that there will be an intermission in the program, at which time refreshments will be sold by the band members in the halls and in the Home Economics department.

Admission will be 10 cents for students and 25 cents for adults, come prepared for fun, and laughter. You can't miss Dutchman-Tell, the wonder man in the ring, and Cal Farley, noted as the "World's Worst Announcer."

The Band Parents Association is sponsoring this circus to raise money for new uniforms for the band members.

Do your part, and come; Cal Farley will do his part in entertaining you.

The Eagles have run their string of victories up to 12 games. Friona gave them a good scrap Friday night but they just didn't measure up. Jerry Malin, sports writer of the Amarillo Daily News, says, "Tab the Canyon Eagles as chief contenders for the district title this year." Sounds like big doings in the old town.

Patsy Britain took pictures of the Eagles in their suits last Monday for publication in the Amarillo paper, with "Bot" Rusk as the giant of the picture and C. L. Drummond the pee wee of the squad. Bot is 6 feet 3, and C. L. is 5 feet 8. The rest of the team makes stair steps with Calliham 6 feet, Pope, 5 feet 11, and Eston Breitting 5 feet 10.

The Eaglettes don't seem to be able to start winning this year. But they have played some good games. Kate Donnell having been the leading scorer for the Eaglettes so far, with Natalie Fleisher taking the brunt of the guard duties.

We had a fair following at the Friona game and would like to have that many at all the games. Win, lose, or draw, the Eagles promise to shoot the works in any game and give the crowd their money's worth. With lots of backing, the Eagles aren't likely to lose; so everyone turn out for the next home game.

Last Wednesday the girls' team defeated the W. A. A. girls of the college 33 to 13.

"Bite-ums" Bane of Existence

Have you ever heard the expression "Bite 'ums"? If you have not, just come to the journalism room any Monday night.

The journalism students as a rule don't go home after school and get something to eat before they go to work on the Eagle's Tale. Boy, are they hungry about supper time. Just let some one enter with a box of buttered cookies or some real cookies, and all in a shout will yell "Bite 'ums!" The poor owner of the eats will have to run or else lose his cookies and go hungry himself. The editor usually gets hungry about 6 or 7 o'clock and sends some one over to the store to get some apples, and out of a half dozen or so she usually gets at least one.

Last Monday night Melvin got a box of buttered crackers, and about all he got out of them was the ones he ate before he got in the room.

A few weeks ago Sanford Black bought thirty cents worth of cookies and stated that all he got out of them was four and that he had to swipe two of them. So the next time he bought anything he set the box in the waste paper basket, making it appear an empty box, therefore he was able to eat the most of them before being discovered.

Well, I guess that us kids do get a little hungry after school when we don't go home to supper until about 9 o'clock.

Press Club Amateur NightEagles, Eaglettes
Met Hereford

The Eagles journey to Hereford Saturday night for the only game they have scheduled this week-end. The Eaglettes play Union Hill Friday night in the grade school gym and go to Hereford Saturday night.

The Eagles have not met the Hereford White Faces yet; but by comparative scores against Dimmitt, they are several points better than the White Faces. However, dope means little in a contest between the White Faces and Eagles.

There is always a spirit of rivalry between the two teams that makes their meetings a classic. The probable starting lineup for the Eagles is as follows: Forwards, Breitting and Calliham; center, Rusk; and guards, Drummond and Pope.

The Eaglettes meet Union Hill in another classic of girls' games on Friday night. Union Hill has already defeated the Eaglettes twice, and the Eaglettes are eager for a chance to partially even the score.

Saturday night the girls meet the Hereford girls. Hereford has won a percentage of their games and won the Dimmitt tournament. The school rivalry is strong and the Eaglettes are anxious to prove their superiority.

Historic Dates Thick
In January

January has some historic event on almost a third of its days.

To begin with, besides beginning the new year, January 1 is the day that President Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, declaring "forever free" all slaves within the United States.

On January 6, 1919, the twenty-sixth president of the United States, Theodore Roosevelt, died. Roosevelt was born in New York City in 1858. Besides being governor of New York in 1899 and vice-president in 1901, Roosevelt was noted as an athlete, politician, rancher, police commissioner, author, hunter, and naturalist. He became president upon the death of McKinley. Since he was only 43 years of age, he was the youngest man to ever become president.

The Battle of New Orleans was fought January 8, 1815. This was the battle that made Andrew Jackson famous during the War of 1812 against England. It was the one brilliant success of the Americans on land.

Benjamin Franklin, scientist, author, statesman, philosopher, inventor, diplomat, printer, and humorist, was born on January 17, 1706, in Boston, Massachusetts. He signed the Declaration of Independence, the Treaty with France, Treaty of Paris closing the Revolutionary War, and the Constitution.

One of the greatest American statesmen, Daniel Webster, was born on January 18, 1782, in Salisbury (now Franklin), New Hampshire.

Robert E. Lee, commander-in-chief of the Confederate armies during the Civil War and the South's greatest hero, was born January 19, 1807, at Stratford, Virginia. It is said that he is the best-loved commander the world has ever known.

"Stonewall" (Thomas Jonathan) Jackson was born on January 21, 1824, at Clarksburg, Virginia. He was said to be the next greatest general to Lee in the Civil War. He acquired the name "Stonewall" because of his deep earnestness and unflinching steadiness.

William McKinley, the twenty-fifth president of the United States was born January 29, 1843, in Niles, Ohio. He served one term and started the second term but was shot by Leon Cuylogoz. Mount McKinley was named in his honor.

Last in date but foremost in importance is President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who was born January 30, 1882, in Hyde Park, New York. He was elected president in 1932 and re-elected in 1936. The Presidential inauguration is January 20.

P. T. A. To Meet
Today

The Canyon Parent-Teachers Association will meet at 7:30 o'clock at the high school auditorium Thursday evening, Jan. 28.

The following program will be given: music by the Mother Singers; a devotional to be given by Mrs. W. T. Davis; and a discussion on "Forcefulness" by Mrs. S. H. Condon.

All parents and other friends of the school are especially urged to be present, according to the president, Mrs. Dan Sanders.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Make your plans now, if they are not already made, to attend the great "amateur night" tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

The Press Club is sponsoring the entertainment to make funds to attend the Interscholastic League Press Conference in the spring at Austin.

Master of ceremonies is to be Mr. Gordon Beck, who is a teacher in the grade school and has an expression class which consists of elementary pupils.

The amateur program will consist of music, chalk talks, speaking, dancing and imitations.

It will be worth your time to attend the amateur night. The prices are 10 cents for students and 15 cents for adults.

Successful Term
For '36 Finished

Canyon High School has accomplished more in the first half of this year than it has in several years.

The most outstanding thing was the first successful football season for some time. The Eagles beat Hereford for the first time since 1932, and held up a high standard against teams which were entirely out of their class.

A drum corps was successfully established and was sent to Dallas. A very successful basketball season was started by the Eagles, who have lost only one game out of thirteen.

Melvin Callihan, president of the Student Council, won first in an F. F. A. contest, winning a trip to the Texas Centennial.

The other attainments of the school year have been up to par but not outstanding, the athletic accomplishments being the most noticeable.

Prospects for an even more successful semester are now popping up; so we shall probably top the list during this next half year.

Study Club Discuss
"Mental Hygiene"

"Mental Hygiene" was the base topic of discussion at the meeting of the Faculty Study Club Wednesday evening in the Home Economics Room. Because of the absence of Superintendent I. B. Caruth last week, the meeting was postponed until this week.

"Crime Prevention Through Education" was discussed by Mr. Gordon Beck, after which Mr. Caruth discussed "Mental Hygiene." Miss Ruth Greenfield acted as chairman of the program.

Mrs. Stella Murrell was refreshment chairman, assisted by Miss Anna Ruth Eastus and Mr. R. G. Stephenson.

The program for the next meeting will be on "Curriculum," with Mr. John B. Pope and Miss Elva Fronabarger leading the discussions.

Dobe Bucket Fills
As Eagles Win
Three Games

The Eagles chalked up three more straight victories this week. Wednesday they defeated the Sandies 32-20. Friday night they defeated Friona 37-30, and Saturday they took Happy 31-17. The Eaglettes were defeated by the Friona sextet 25-17 Friday night and went down to the Happy Cowgirls Saturday by 22-26.

In the first game, Miller of the Sandies chalked up 11 points for high-point honors. Breitting and Drummond tied for second with 8 points.

The Chiefs brought a fast-breaking, straight-shooting team to challenge the Eagles. The Eagles defeated the Chiefs once this season by 1 point. The latter were determined to get revenge but fell a little short. Drummond was high point man with 17 points, and Brookfield of Friona second with 12 points.

The Friona sextet defeated the Eaglettes by 25-17.

The game with the Cowboys was the first cager this season between the two teams. Happy has a fast team, which causes much trouble for his opponents. Rusk was high point man with 15 points, and Toles of Happy second with 11 points.

The Cowgirls, with a good snappy team, traded honors with the boys. The Eaglettes hope to beat them when they play in February.

Grade School Notes

Miss Gladys McClanahan's fourth grade is working on a unit of clothing. Saturday morning they made a trip out to the Nance Sheep Ranch six miles east of town to learn more about sheep as a source of one of our most important fabrics.

Miss Ruth Greenfield's 3-A children are building and planning to operate a cafeteria in their room. This is an activity growing out of their study of foods. They made a trip to the College Cafeteria to study at first-hand the arrangement of the place, the equipment, the workers, and the service.

"Dr. C. E. Donnell, who moved to Lamesa last week, donated many old magazines to the Grade School. They are to be cut up by the children and teachers for scrapbooks, notebooks, and bulletin board materials. Among the collections were numbers of the Ladies' Home Journal, Pictorial Review, Woman's Home Companion, Good Housekeeping, McCall's, Life, Harper's, Review of Reviews, Holland's, Country Gentleman, The Spur, Today, and others. This gift was greatly appreciated as we find it very difficult to keep on hand enough old magazines for such work," stated Miss Elva Fronabarger, elementary supervisor.

Mrs. Dan Sanders has made a donation of back numbers of the National Geographic Magazine to the Grade School. These are to be bound for our library.

Mrs. Andy Walsh substituted for Miss Gladys McClanahan, who was ill recently.

Miss Virginia Jarrett, one of our first grade teachers, recently had an account of her unit on "The Playhouse" published in the Feabody Reflector, a magazine published by George Peabody College for Teachers at Nashville, Tenn.

Miss Edna Graham of the mathematics department at the College brought a class to Canyon Grade School recently to observe Mrs. John Davis teach fifth-grade arithmetic.

Anna Mayo Sharp, former student of Canyon High School, visited her aunt, Mrs. R. McGee, and Beulah Brasuel this week end.

W. T. Calves Reap Second Victory Against Lockney

Paced by their little basket-making captain, Velton Sargee, the W. T. High School Calves stamped to their second victory of the season last Friday night over the Lockney five, on the Longhorns' maples, 38-20.

The melee was tightly-contested during the initial period with neither squad able to stack up a substantial lead. The Longhorns held a one-point margin, 14-13, at the half intermission.

In the closing canto, however, the Calves began to pour in points so rapidly that they left the bewildered Longhorns far behind, scoring 25 points to only 6 for the losers.

Captain Sargee took off high scoring honors, ringing up 17 points, closely followed by Vaughan, a fellow guard, with 11 marks. McAvoy, Lockney guard, accounted for 9 of his team's points.

Last Wednesday, the Calves opened their 1937 cage season by edging out the Wildorado Whirlwind, 17-14, on the hardwoods of Burton Gym.

On Friday and Saturday nights the Calves will play a two-game series with Bula on the Bula court.

Beware The Cough From a common cold That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle.

Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

President's Reorganization Plan Is Tough Issue for Congress

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

WASHINGTON—If there's one problem that is certain to keep Congress in a dither for a time, that is the president's recommendation for broad reorganization of the structure of federal government.

Hardly had the general outlines of the president's plan been laid before Congress when opposition broke out; opposition that took no account of party lines. What is more significant, sources close to the president contend that the major portion of the reorganization plan still is in the president's desk.

Roosevelt gave Congress only 47 pages, which laid down general principles and outlined specifically only those broad, major changes which require congressional action. The detailed program for regrouping more than 100 government agencies, insist these private sources, remains with the chief executive, awaiting use after Congress gives him power to act.

THE president, emphasizing "good management" rather than economy, told Congress that the present structure of government is "badly out of date." Accordingly, he urged five major steps toward reorganization:

1—Consolidation of all boards, commissions, and agencies of the federal government under 12 cabinet departments, the two new ones being Social Welfare and Public Works. He would change the name of the Interior Department to that of Conservation.

2—Placing of the entire government administrative service on a career and merit basis. This would extend civil service to all non-policy-determining positions, under the president.

3—Changing present office of the comptroller-general into the office of an "auditor-general," responsible to Congress only for post audit of federal financial activities. The existent pre-audit function would be given to the Treasury and the judicial function to the attorney-general.

4—Consolidation in a national resources board of the responsibility for national planning and constant research to improve governmental efficiency, directly under the president. Strengthening of the budget bureau would also come under this point.

5—Permitting the president six executive assistants to relieve the chief executive of burdening routine work.

ONE of the first disagreements in Congress arose over the president's statement that no appreciable saving can be expected under reorganization unless federal functions are curtailed or eliminated outright. And this, the president considers, is not a matter of reorganization.

Led by Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia, chairman of the Senate committee on reorganization, there is one school of thought in the capital that insists hundreds of millions of dollars can be saved through pruning and reorganization.

The president is inclined to feel that consolidations will make more for efficiency than for any great economy.

And that, obviously, is a difficult problem.

Thompson Talks on Rural-Urban Relations at Rotary

T. C. Thompson, pioneer merchant of Canyon, talked at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Tuesday on Rural-Urban Acquaintance. The speaker was introduced by Charles Edward Donnell.

Mr. Thompson believes that better acquaintance was needed not only between the town and country, but also within towns, and even within clubs like Rotary. Too often the attempt to become better acquainted is for the purpose of commercial gain rather than for increasing friendship.

There never has been a time when there was greater need of better acquaintance between the town and country. There is great need of encouragement, friendship, association and personal contact between the residents of town and country. There is no longer a barrier between the two. Some of the best and finest business people in the county are found on the farms. To cultivate friendly relationship is good for both the town and country.

"No one is truly born until he is dead," stated Mr. Thompson, as he recalled how much the community appreciates the work of men and women after they are gone. It is then that people realize the worth of lives; what they have done, the influence they have been in the community. It is then that people realize life never ceases to exert an influence upon those which it has touched, and with which it has been associated. Mr. Thompson urged Rotarians to take advantage of the opportunities which are offered.

Doug Shirley expressed appreciation of the club for the talk of Mr. Thompson, and what he had done in the county. Mr. Shirley announced that the work of Mr. Thompson had been recognized by the 12 Home Demonstration Clubs of Randall county. A beautiful afghan was presented Mr. Thompson at Christmas on which each club in the county had done some work. During the past year Mr. Thompson missed only two of the achievement days held in the county, and since the Home Demonstration work started in the county has missed only a few of these days unless prevented by illness.

M. H. Rockwell introduced his guest, Melvin Callham, a high school student, who had won a free trip to the Texas Centennial last year by his essay on "Quality Cream." Mr. Rockwell stated too much could not be said or done to improve the quality of cream. This problem has much to do with the health of the county.

Other visitors present were: Sherwood Blasdel, Eugene Blasdel, and Ben Anderson, all of Amarillo.

Announcement was made that the ladies of the Presbyterian Church would not continue to serve the meals after next Tuesday. The board of directors was instructed to investigate and find a location for the weekly luncheons to be announced by next Tuesday. The Rotary Club has met with the ladies of the Presbyterian church during the past eight years.

Whittenburg Estate Is Being Appraised By Amarillo Group

Appraisal of the J. A. Whittenburg estate will be completed in a few weeks. Local attorneys have not given definite information regarding the value of the estate, which is estimated at more than $5,000,000.

Mr. Whittenburg died in October as the result of an automobile accident.

His will made definite provision for his daughter, Mrs. Sid Hedgecock, and disposed of the huge estate to his 19 grandchildren.

W. T. Coble, E. B. Bartell, and Jake Phillips are making the appraisal. J. A. Whittenburg, Jr., and Roy Whittenburg were named executors in the will.

Cantrell Will Take Assessments at Office During January

M. E. Cantrell, deputy tax assessor, will be at the office of R. N. Barnett during the remainder of January to take renditions for tax assessments for 1937.

"Those who wish to claim exemptions for homesteads must sign tax rendition blanks," states Mr. Cantrell. "Those who do not sign the rendition blanks are not allowed exemptions on homesteads, under the terms of the state law," states Mr. Cantrell.

Many tax payers have been going to the office to sign the rendition blanks, and during the balance of the month many others will render their 1937 taxes when they pay the 1936 taxes which are due and payable on or before the 31st of January.

L. D. Callaway of Henrietta and C. L. Moore of Blue Grove are visiting at the M. E. Cantrell home.

District Court

ney, we investigated 11 cases and voted 6 indictments. We examined 42 witnesses.

"Generally speaking, we wish to commend the officers for their diligence and urge the citizens to give their fullest support to law enforcement.

"The Grand Jury made a special investigation of the slaughter houses of the county and meat markets. We find that conditions are wholesome so far as operation is concerned, but that proper reports are not being made to the County Commissioners as regards records of hides and inspection. We recommend that all markets and butchers and hide buyers and the Hide and Animal Inspector read the law carefully and comply with its terms, where such has not been done. We further recommend that the Commissioners Court check these reports each month carefully, as the law provides.

"The Grand Jury would call attention to business houses that operate or permit to be operated marble games: There is no violation of law where these are operated just as pastime, but if cash or merchandise is given for certain scores then this constitutes a violation of the state law and parties conducting such games are advised to discontinue such practice or face indictment.

"The Grand Jury wishes to thank all officials who have co-operated in its proceedings and urges every one to be vigilant in the matter of conformity to the spirit as well as the letter of the law."

The report was signed by all twelve members of the Grand Jury: S. H. Condon, foreman, Ross Craig, clerk, H. G. Persons, Carl B. Fugua, A. E. Wise, Earl J. Davis, Tom Lair, John Menke, Louis Wiek, Arthur M. Olson, Glen W. Dowlen and C. P. Robertson.

J. R. Peters from Estancia, N. M. is visiting in the home of his father, J. E. Peters.

Legion Auxiliary to Sponsor Birthday Ball of Roosevelt

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor the President's Birthday ball. The affair will be held on Friday night, Jan. 29, instead of on Saturday night, which is the nation-wide event. The change in nights was made because of previous arrangements made by the Auxiliary.

The News wired the national office for the President's Ball in New York that the ball would be held locally, and official recognition is given for the local affair.

Mrs. Ray Campbell, president of the Auxiliary, is named as the official local chairman by the national committee, headed by Henry L. Doherty.

Admission will be $1.00 per couple, owing to the fact that the Melody Mads orchestra of Amarillo has been employed for the occasion.

Under the national plan, 70% of the proceeds will be given to local charity and the balance goes to the national committee to fight infantile paralysis among children.

STUDENTS WHO FLUNK TO BE FINED AT OKLAHOMA U.

Announcement was made Sunday from the University of Oklahoma that every student who failed a course would be assessed a fine of $3.00.

The argument in favor of such a fine was that the state had invested money in giving the course to the student, and if the student fails it is likely his own fault.

It was predicted this fine would raise several thousand dollars in Oklahoma University.

HEREFORD SCHOOL BUS IS DEMOLISHED IN WRECK

A school bus carrying the Hereford boys' and girls' basketball teams home from Friona overturned and was demolished Saturday night. All in the bus were bruised but none seriously injured.

The high school coach was driving, and in passing over a place in the highway where repairs were being made the machine got out of control and went into the ditch.

The Canyon teams will play Hereford Saturday night in Hereford.

The New Farmall 20 Tractor Is Ready Now

McCormick-Deering

HERE we are with the New McCormick-Deering Farmall 20 Tractor. This model has practically the same physical dimensions as the regular Farmall—but it has a good 10 per cent more power, 4 forward speeds, enclosed steering gears, and enclosed steering brakes.

The advantages of the additional power and extra speeds which make the Farmall 20 more flexible are appreciated when it comes to pulling 2 plow bottoms and the heavier tillage tools in tough going, operating 4-row cultivators, 2-row Farmall corn pickers, 2-row potato diggers, and all drawbar, belt, and power take-off jobs. Farmall 20 speeds are 2 1/2, 2 3/4, 3 1/2, and 3 3/4 miles per hour.

You will admire the Farmall 20 when you see it at work. It has all the features that have made the regular Farmall famous. Ask us about it now.
